Autumnal Greetings Fiber Friends,

I'm always surprised at how much I respond to the changing of seasons. The density, coolness and aroma of autumn's morning air brings on a mood of great reflection and a I take sort of mental deep breath to steel myself for the months ahead filled with family birthdays, home school duties and holidays. As I finish up the knitted and crocheted birthday gifts for my 3 middle children my thoughts are turning toward the Holidays and what I'll be creating for everybody then. Remember there are only 3 months until Christmas 2007. We've got some great gift ideas and of course the supplies to make them. We're here to help your fiber dreams come true.

Maya would like me to share some wonderful news with all of you. As Arwen puts it, "My Mommie is growing another baby in her tummy." We're all very excited. I do love being a Grammie.

On your next trip to Babetta's ask us about the free patterns we have in the shop that are available with yarn purchase. We've got a whole binder full!
