Babetta's will be OPEN Sept.7, 2026 Labor Day

Happy end of summer days Fiber Friends,

Hope you are well and finding time for your mindful-handarts. Judging from the many new fiber friends finding their way to our yarn isles your super powers of making things with "string" are helping make the world a happier place. That being said I haven't been able to publish with my usual frequency because the shop has been nice and busy. There are lots of new things to share with you in the newsletter and by the time you see these pages I'm sure there will be more. With the Autumnal Equinox only a couple of weeks away our deliveries of new yarns and patterns are happening almost daily. Be assured I will be here to help you make your fiber dreams come true and of course you are always welcome to just do some browsing. Folks often share that walking into the shop brings a sense of relaxation and happiness.
